

The proposed rule that would water down current Indiana State law regarding telemarketers and the "Do not Call" list would make the Indiana state law ineffective and would result in the return to unrestricted telemarketing calls. Please do not make rule changes that would reduce the effectiveness of the Indiana "No Call" Law.